

Our Names in the Computing Age

Gabe DeFreitas

February 8, 2019

Some More Name Restrictions

- Québec: Civil Law Director can challenge names placed on birth certificates
- 1998: “Tomás Gagnon” was denied for mixing Portuguese and French elements (father was Québécois and mother was Brazilian)
- Overruled by a court